

Contract Transportation

“Applicant agrees that failure to pay any charges required to be paid to Shipper in the State of Florida shall be deemed an act of breach of this Agreement committed in the State of Florida that subjects Applicant to jurisdiction of Florida's courts and that in such event if Shipper files suit against Applicant for such payment in one of the aforementioned courts located in Florida, Applicant has expressly waived its right to contest jurisdiction of such court. In the event Applicant is delinquent in payment of freight and other charges, Applicant shall bear all costs of collections plus liquidated damages of eighteen (18) percent of any freight bill as a reasonable estimate of Shipper’s damages which are at this time difficult to ascertain and, not as a penalty, whether suit is brought for such delinquency or a collection agent is employed. Applicant agrees that the shipper, consignee, holder of any applicable bills of lading, and owner of any applicable goods and their principals, shall be jointly and severally liable to Shipper for the payment of all freight, demurrage, general average and other charges due Shipper.

CARRIER shall have a lien on the goods tendered to CARRIER by Shipper, which lien which shall survive delivery, for all charges owed by Shipper to CARRIER, including but not limited to freight, demurrage, detention, damages, loss, charges, expenses and any other sums (including costs, customs fees, attorney fees, and other fees for recovery the sums) chargeable to CARRIER or Shipper in connection with such goods, regardless of whether the charges relate to goods which are presently in the possession of CARRIER or Goods which are not presently in the possession of CARRIER, including both prior and subsequent shipments. CARRIER shall have the right to sell the goods by public auction or private sale without notice to the Shipper in order to enforce said lien. If on sale of the goods the proceeds are insufficient to cover the amount owed, CARRIER shall be entitled to recover the balance from Shipper”.